

Leadership in the province-wide context including administrative roles in a variety of school systems are opportunities that ignite interest to inspire and action educational change. If you are a Principal or Vice-Principal and have considered the Supervisory Officer role join us to hear about the experiences of newly appointed and experienced Supervisory Officers from across the province.

TUESDAY MAY 4, 2021 | 4:30-6:00 PM

MODERATED BY:

DONNA FORD, PEEL DSB AND STEVE PLADZYK, DSB ONTARIO NORTH EAST

PANELISTS:

	LOIS AGARD is an educator with over twenty years of experience. She has been a field Principal and Centrally Assigned Principal in two Ontario school boards. Currently, she is a Superintendent with York Region DSB supporting seventeen schools, the board's regional IB program and Black Excellence Program.
	JAMES BRAKE is Elmastukwekis Ktaqamkuk (Bay of Islands, Newfoundland) Mi'kmaq working and living as a guest in Michi Saagiig territory. James currently serving in the role of Superintendent of Education: First Nation, Métis and Inuit Education for Kawartha Pine Ridge DSB. With a focus on the embedding of Indigenous knowledge, culture and perspective into the curriculum at KPR, James is honoured to support the creation of learning and working environments where students and staff see themselves reflected daily.
	LEILA GIRDHAR-HILL has been a Superintendent in Toronto DSB over the past 14 years. As a Superintendent she has led five networks (Families of Schools) of Principals and Vice-Principals in various parts of the city; and has held two System Superintendent roles in the areas of school effectiveness and the secondary school support initiative.
	CLARA HOWITT has been a Supervisory Officer responsible with experience in the following areas: Curriculum and Programming K-12, Safe Schools, Student Success, Virtual Learning, Research and Leadership Development. She is presently leading Curriculum and Programming K-12, Leadership Development and Virtual Learning at Greater Essex County DSB. Areas of expertise include research, program implementation and program review. Clara has also held responsibility in managing schools at both the elementary and secondary level.
	JAMIE NUNN is an educator with over twenty years of experience including secondary Principal, System Principal and Supervisory Officer. Currently, Jamie is the Superintendent of Human Resource Services with Hamilton-Wentworth DSB supporting staffing and recruitment, Collective Bargaining/Collective Agreements/Terms and Conditions, Occupational Health and Safety, Employee Support and Wellness and Professional Development.

Please register by end of day April 29, 2021.